

Aviva Distinct Motor Claims FAQ

Knowledge Base

FAQ ID: FAQ-001

Category: Claims Notification

Difficulty: Basic

Question: How do I report a claim?

Answer: You can report a claim 24/7 by calling 0800 051 1750 (or +44 1603 208 901 from overseas).

Policy Reference: Claims service

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claims notification, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-002

Category: Claims Notification

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What information do I need when I call to report an accident?

Answer: Please have your policy number or vehicle registration, and the date of the incident ready.

Policy Reference: Your claim

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claims notification, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-003

Category: Accident Reporting

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Is there a time limit for reporting an accident?

Answer: You must report any accident, injury, loss, or damage to us as soon as possible.

Policy Reference: General conditions - Claims procedure

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: accident reporting, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-004

Category: Courtesy Car

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Will I get a courtesy car if my car is being repaired?

Answer: Yes, if your car is being repaired by our approved repairer, we will provide a Mercedes C Class or equivalent for the duration of the repair.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Courtesy and hire car

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: courtesy car, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-005

Category: Excesses

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What is my excess?

Answer: Your excess is the amount you must pay towards any claim. The specific amount is shown on your policy schedule.

Policy Reference: Definitions / Policy Schedule

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: excesses, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-006

Category: Personal Belongings

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Are my personal belongings covered if they are stolen from the car?

Answer: Yes, up to £2,500 for loss or damage caused by fire, theft, or accident while in or on your car, provided a claim is also made under Section 1.

Policy Reference: Section 6 - Personal belongings

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: personal belongings, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-007

Category: Medical Expenses

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Does my policy cover medical expenses for passengers?

Answer: Yes, we will pay up to £1,000 for medical expenses for each injured person in your car following an accident.

Policy Reference: Section 4 - Medical expenses

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: medical expenses, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-008

Category: Foreign Travel Claims

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Am I covered if I drive abroad?

Answer: Yes, you have the same level of cover as shown in your schedule for visits to EU countries and certain others for up to six months per trip.

Policy Reference: Section 15 - Continental use

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: foreign travel claims, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-009

Category: Windscreen Claims

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What happens if my windscreen is cracked?

Answer: We will pay for repair or replacement of the glass in your car's windscreen, sunroof, or windows. Call 0800 051 1750 before work starts.

Policy Reference: Section 12 - Glass

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: windscreen claims, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-010

Category: Medical Expenses

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What is 'Physiofast'?

Answer: Physiofast provides up to £400 for treatment from a chartered physiotherapist if you are injured in an accident involving your car.

Policy Reference: Section 5 - Physiofast

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: medical expenses, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-011

Category: Foreign Travel Claims

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Do I need a Green Card for driving in the EU?

Answer: For countries within the territorial limits, a Green Card is generally not necessary as your certificate of motor insurance is sufficient proof.

Policy Reference: Section 23 - If you take your car abroad

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: foreign travel claims, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-012

Category: Uninsured Driver Claims

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What if I'm involved in an accident with an uninsured driver?

Answer: Our Uninsured Driver Promise means we will refund your excess if the accident was not your fault and you can provide the other vehicle's details.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Uninsured driver promise

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: uninsured driver claims, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-013

Category: Breakdown Assistance

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Is there breakdown cover included?

Answer: Yes, full UK breakdown cover provided by RAC is included in your Distinct Motor policy.

Policy Reference: Section 22 - RAC breakdown cover

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: breakdown assistance, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-014

Category: Repair Process

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Can I choose my own repairer?

Answer: Yes, but this may lead to delays, and we may not provide a courtesy car if you do not use our approved repairer.

Policy Reference: Section 1 / General conditions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: repair process, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-015

Category: Fire Damage Claims

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What counts as 'Fire' in my policy?

Answer: Fire includes fire, self-ignition, lightning, and explosion.

Policy Reference: Definitions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: fire damage claims, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-016

Category: New Vehicle Replacement

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What is 'New Car Replacement'?

Answer: If your car is under 36 months old and stolen or suffers damage exceeding 60% of its list price, we will replace it with a new car of the same make/model.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - New car replacement

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: new vehicle replacement, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-017

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Are child seats covered?

Answer: Yes, we will pay the replacement cost of child seats fitted in your car if it's involved in an accident, fire, or theft, even if there's no apparent damage.

Policy Reference: Section 7 - Child seat cover

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-018

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Basic

Question: What should I do if my car is stolen?

Answer: Report it to the police as soon as possible and then call our claims helpline on 0800 051 1750.

Policy Reference: General conditions - Claims procedure

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-019

Category: Personal Injury

Difficulty: Basic

Question: Does the policy cover road rage incidents?

Answer: We may pay up to £5,000 for medical expenses or trauma counselling if you suffer a physical assault resulting from an incident involving your car.

Policy Reference: Section 19 - Road rage

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: personal injury, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-020

Category: Claims Notification

Difficulty: Basic

Question: How do I complain if I'm unhappy with the claims service?

Answer: In the first instance, contact your insurance adviser or Aviva. You can also refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

Policy Reference: Complaints procedure

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claims notification, basic, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-021

Category: Claim Settlement

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What is 'Market Value' and how is it calculated?

Answer: Market Value is the cost of replacing your car with one of the same make, model, specification, and condition at the time of the loss.

Policy Reference: Definitions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim settlement, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-022

Category: Excesses

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: If I have multiple excesses on my schedule, do I pay both?

Answer: Yes, excesses are cumulative. For example, if you have a young driver excess and a compulsory excess, both apply to a damage claim.

Policy Reference: Policy Schedule - Excess Schedule

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: excesses, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-023

Category: Claim Settlement

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Is my No Claim Discount (NCD) affected if I'm not at fault?

Answer: If we are satisfied you were not to blame, your NCD will not be affected. This is part of our 'No Blame Discount' promise.

Policy Reference: Section 11 - No blame discount

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim settlement, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-024

Category: Legal Expenses Cover

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Does my policy cover legal costs if I'm sued after an accident?

Answer: Yes, we cover legal liability for death or injury to others and damage to their property (up to £20m), including legal costs incurred with our consent.

Policy Reference: Section 2 - Your liability

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: legal expenses cover, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-025

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Are my ignition keys covered if lost?

Answer: Yes, Section 16 covers the cost of replacing locks, transmitters, and central locking interfaces if your keys are lost or stolen.

Policy Reference: Section 16 - Replacement locks

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-026

Category: Claim Rejection Scenarios

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What are the exclusions for theft claims?

Answer: We won't pay if keys were left in or on the car, or if the car was left unattended with the engine running.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Exclusions to Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim rejection scenarios, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-027

Category: Policy Changes

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Can I drive someone else's car under this policy?

Answer: This is an optional cover. If 'Driving Another Vehicle' is indicated on your schedule, you may have accidental damage cover (up to £75,000).

Policy Reference: Section 24 - Driving another vehicle

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: policy changes, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-028

Category: Total Loss

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What is 'Total Loss'?

Answer: A total loss occurs when the car is stolen and not recovered, or the cost of repair exceeds the car's market value.

Policy Reference: Section 1 / Section 20

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: total loss, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-029

Category: Personal Belongings

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Does the policy cover my pet if it's in the car during an accident?

Answer: Yes, we pay up to £2,500 for emergency veterinary costs if your pet is injured in an accident, fire, or theft in your car.

Policy Reference: Section 13 - Pet Cover

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: personal belongings, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-030

Category: Breakdown Assistance

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What happens if I'm too ill to drive while on a trip?

Answer: If the permitted driver is seriously ill and cannot continue, we provide a recovery service to transport the car home or to a single address in the UK.

Policy Reference: Section 9 - Vehicle recovery in the event of illness

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: breakdown assistance, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-031

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Are 'Accessories' covered?

Answer: Yes, permanently fitted audio, multi-media, and nav systems with no independent power source are covered under Section 1.

Policy Reference: Definitions / Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-032

Category: Legal Expenses Cover

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Is there a limit on property damage liability?

Answer: The limit is £20,000,000 for damage to another person's property, plus up to £5,000,000 for legal costs.

Policy Reference: Section 2 - Your liability

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: legal expenses cover, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-033

Category: Uninsured Driver Claims

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What is the 'Uninsured Driver Promise' requirement?

Answer: You must provide the other vehicle's registration, make/model, and the driver's details to have your excess refunded.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Uninsured driver promise

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: uninsured driver claims, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-034

Category: Claim Rejection Scenarios

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Will the insurer pay my claim if I have modifications I didn't declare?

Answer: Failure to disclose modifications can affect your cover, potentially leading to claim rejection or policy cancellation.

Policy Reference: Contract of insurance - Information and changes

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim rejection scenarios, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-035

Category: New Vehicle Replacement

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Are 'Ex-demonstrator' cars eligible for New Car Replacement?

Answer: No, cars sold as 'ex demonstrators' or 'nearly new' do not qualify for new car replacement.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - New car replacement

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: new vehicle replacement, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-036

Category: Named Drivers

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What if I use my car for a car-sharing arrangement?

Answer: Cover is valid provided the car is not built to carry more than 8 passengers and you are not making a profit from the contributions.

Policy Reference: General conditions - Car sharing and insurance

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: named drivers, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-037

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Does the policy cover 'Car Jacking'?

Answer: Yes, we pay up to £5,000 for medical and trauma costs if you are assaulted during an aggravated attempted theft of your car.

Policy Reference: Section 18 - Car jacking

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-038

Category: Personal Injury

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What is 'Loss of Limb' coverage?

Answer: Under Section 3, we pay £30,000 for the loss of a limb or sight/hearing as a direct result of an accident in your car.

Policy Reference: Section 3 - Injury to you or your partner

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: personal injury, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-039

Category: Policy Changes

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: Can I suspend my cover if I'm not using the car?

Answer: If your car is out of use for 28+ days, we may refund part of the premium, provided the car is kept in a locked private garage.

Policy Reference: Section 14 - Suspending cover

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: policy changes, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-040

Category: Total Loss

Difficulty: Intermediate

Question: What happens to my Personalized Registration plate if the car is a total loss?

Answer: We will pay the fee for transferring your personalized registration plate following a total loss claim.

Policy Reference: Section 20 - Personalised registrations

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: total loss, intermediate, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-041

Category: Endorsements

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: How does the 'High Value Vehicle' endorsement affect my claim?

Answer: It may require specific security measures (like trackers) or limit repairers. Always check the 'Endorsements Applicable' section of your schedule.

Policy Reference: Policy Schedule / Endorsement Letter

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: endorsements, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-042

Category: Claim Rejection Scenarios

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Does the policy cover damage caused by 'Pressure Waves'?

Answer: No, loss or damage caused by pressure waves from aircraft travelling at sonic or supersonic speeds is specifically excluded.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Exclusions to Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim rejection scenarios, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-043

Category: Legal Expenses Cover

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: What is the liability limit when carrying high category hazardous goods?

Answer: Liability for damage to property is limited to £1,200,000 when carrying high category hazardous goods.

Policy Reference: Section 2 - Your liability

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: legal expenses cover, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-044

Category: Breakdown Assistance

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Are there restrictions on RAC breakdown assistance near home?

Answer: Roadside assistance usually excludes breakdowns occurring within a quarter of a mile of your home unless 'At Home' cover is included.

Policy Reference: Section 22 - Exclusions to Roadside assistance

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: breakdown assistance, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-045

Category: Named Drivers

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: How is 'Immediate Family' defined for the purpose of the policy?

Answer: It includes partners, parents, grandparents, children, siblings, and in-laws living at your permanent address.

Policy Reference: Definitions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: named drivers, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-046

Category: Policy Changes

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: What happens if my driving licence is revoked due to ill health?

Answer: We will pay up to £3,000 towards the cost of alternative transport for up to 12 months or until you can drive again.

Policy Reference: Section 17 - Revocation of driving licence

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: policy changes, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-047

Category: Legal Expenses Cover

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Does 'Motor Legal Protection' cover defense of speeding fines?

Answer: Yes, it provides up to £20,000 for lawyers' costs to help defend your legal rights if you are accused of a motoring offence.

Policy Reference: Section 25 - Motor legal protection

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: legal expenses cover, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-048

Category: Legal Expenses Cover

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: What are 'Reasonable Prospects of Success' in a legal claim?

Answer: The lawyer must believe it is more likely than not (>50%) that you will succeed in recovering damages or defending a claim.

Policy Reference: Section 25 - Reasonable prospects of success

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: legal expenses cover, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-049

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Are EV batteries covered under the main policy?

Answer: Yes, they are covered as part of the car, but specific endorsements (e.g., P09) may apply an 'EV Battery/Charging Equipment Excess'.

Policy Reference: Section 1 / P09 Policy Schedule

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-050

Category: Claim Settlement

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Does the policy cover 'Loss of Value' after a car has been repaired?

Answer: No, loss of value following repair is a standard exclusion under Section 1.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Exclusions to Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim settlement, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-051

Category: Legal Expenses Cover

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: What is 'Cross Liability'?

Answer: If more than one person is insured, the policy applies as if a separate policy was issued to each, but the total property damage limit still applies.

Policy Reference: Section 2 - Your liability

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: legal expenses cover, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-052

Category: Claim Rejection Scenarios

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Are mechanical or electrical breakdowns covered under Section 1?

Answer: No, Section 1 excludes mechanical, electrical, or electronic failure or breakdown.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Exclusions to Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim rejection scenarios, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-053

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Can I claim if my car is damaged by a flood?

Answer: Yes, flood damage is typically covered under 'accidental damage' in Section 1 of a Comprehensive policy.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Loss or damage

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-054

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Does the policy cover my car while it's at an exhibition?

Answer: Yes, your car is covered while it is on display at an exhibition.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Loss or damage

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-055

Category: Breakdown Assistance

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: What is the 'Gross Vehicle Mass' (GVM) limit for breakdown recovery?

Answer: The car must not exceed a maximum legal laden weight of 3,500kg (3.5 tonnes).

Policy Reference: Section 23 - General exclusions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: breakdown assistance, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-056

Category: Claim Rejection Scenarios

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Is cover provided for 'Airside' incidents at airports?

Answer: No, use on airport parts used for aircraft landing/take-off, parking, or ground equipment areas is excluded unless required by Road Traffic Acts.

Policy Reference: Section 2 - Exclusions to Section 2

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim rejection scenarios, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-057

Category: Total Loss

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: What is the maximum we will pay for 'Personalised Registrations' transfer?

Answer: We pay the current fee for transferring the plate; we do not cover the 'loss of value' of the registration itself.

Policy Reference: Section 20 - Personalised registrations

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: total loss, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-058

Category: Legal Expenses Cover

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: How does 'Duty of Care' apply to driving at work?

Answer: We pay legal fees and costs for defending proceedings like Corporate Manslaughter, but limits apply (e.g., £100,000 for Health & Safety).

Policy Reference: Section 2 - Your liability

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: legal expenses cover, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-059

Category: Named Drivers

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: What if a named driver is convicted of a motoring offence?

Answer: You must tell your insurance adviser immediately. This may affect the premium or the terms of the policy.

Policy Reference: Contract of insurance - Information and changes

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: named drivers, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-060

Category: Foreign Travel Claims

Difficulty: Advanced

Question: Are 'Territorial Limits' the same for breakdown as for main cover?

Answer: Generally yes, but Section 22/23 has a specific list of countries; check the definitions for any exceptions or required Green Cards.

Policy Reference: Section 22 / Section 23 Definitions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: foreign travel claims, advanced, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-061

Category: Named Drivers

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My son borrowed my vehicle and had an accident. Am I covered?

Answer: Yes, provided your son is a named driver on the policy or you gave him permission and the policy allows for any driver with permission.

Policy Reference: Section 2 / Policy Schedule

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: named drivers, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-062

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My vehicle was stolen from my driveway with the keys inside. Can I claim?

Answer: No, Section 1 specifically excludes loss or damage from theft while the ignition keys are left in or on the car.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Exclusions to Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-063

Category: Policy Changes

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I upgraded my vehicle but forgot to inform the insurer. Will the claim be paid?

Answer: Probably not. You are required to tell us immediately about a change of vehicle. Failure to do so may invalidate your cover.

Policy Reference: Contract of insurance - Information and changes

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: policy changes, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-064

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My car was damaged during a flood. What cover applies?

Answer: This is covered under Section 1 as 'accidental damage'. You would pay your standard damage excess.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Loss or damage

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-065

Category: New Vehicle Replacement

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My vehicle was written off shortly after purchase. Will I receive a new replacement vehicle?

Answer: If the car is under 36 months old and you are the first or second registered keeper (with <250 miles at purchase), yes.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - New car replacement

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: new vehicle replacement, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-066

Category: Breakdown Assistance

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I accidentally filled my diesel car with petrol. Am I covered?

Answer: Section 22 (RAC) will take the car to a local garage for assistance, but you must pay for the work carried out.

Policy Reference: Section 22 - Exclusions to Roadside assistance

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: breakdown assistance, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-067

Category: Windscreen Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: A stone chipped my windscreen while I was driving. What should I do?

Answer: Call 0800 051 1750. If repaired, there is no excess. If replaced, you pay the first £100.

Policy Reference: Section 12 - Glass

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: windscreen claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-068

Category: Personal Belongings

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My laptop was stolen from the backseat while I was in the shop.

Answer: You can claim up to £2,500 under Section 6, provided there was a valid claim for damage to the car (e.g., a broken window).

Policy Reference: Section 6 - Personal belongings

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: personal belongings, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-069

Category: Foreign Travel Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I was driving in France and my car broke down.

Answer: Call +44 1603 208 901. European Motoring Assistance (Section 23) will provide roadside assistance and recovery.

Policy Reference: Section 23 - European Motoring Assistance

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: foreign travel claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-070

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I hit a deer at night and my bumper is smashed.

Answer: This is covered under Section 1 accidental damage. Contact the claims helpline to arrange repair.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Loss or damage

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-071

Category: Fire Damage Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My car caught fire due to a mechanical fault in the engine.

Answer: Fire damage is covered under Section 1. Note that the mechanical failure itself isn't covered, but the resulting fire damage is.

Policy Reference: Section 1 / Definitions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: fire damage claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-072

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I left my car running to defrost it and someone drove off in it.

Answer: This is not covered. Theft while the car is unattended with the engine running is an exclusion.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Exclusions to Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-073

Category: Personal Belongings

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My dog was injured when another car hit mine.

Answer: We will pay up to £2,500 for emergency veterinary costs for your pet under Section 13.

Policy Reference: Section 13 - Pet cover

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: personal belongings, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-074

Category: Endorsements

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I am a business user and had an accident while visiting a client.

Answer: Check your schedule. If 'Business Use' is included, you are covered. If only 'Social, Domestic and Pleasure', the claim may be rejected.

Policy Reference: General Exclusions / Policy Schedule

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: endorsements, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-075

Category: Windscreen Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: A thief smashed my window but didn't take anything. Is the window covered?

Answer: Yes, under Section 12 (Glass). You'll pay the replacement excess (usually £100).

Policy Reference: Section 12 - Glass

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: windscreen claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-076

Category: Repair Process

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My car is being repaired at an approved garage. How do I get home?

Answer: The approved repairer or RAC may provide transport home or for completion of your journey.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Vehicle recovery

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: repair process, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-077

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I am an EV owner and my charging cable was stolen from my garage.

Answer: If the cable is a 'spare part' or 'accessory' for the car, it is covered under Section 1.

Policy Reference: Section 1 / Definitions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-078

Category: Claim Settlement

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I hit a wall and no other cars were involved. Does my NCD get affected?

Answer: Yes, unless you have NCD protection or it's a 'no blame' scenario (which usually requires a third party).

Policy Reference: Section 10 / Section 11

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim settlement, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-079

Category: Medical Expenses

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I suffered a neck injury in an accident. Can I get help?

Answer: Yes, Section 5 (Physiofast) provides up to £400 for physiotherapy treatment.

Policy Reference: Section 5 - Physiofast

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: medical expenses, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-080

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My car was damaged by protesters during a riot.

Answer: Section 2 excludes 'civil commotion' in some cases, but 'accidental damage' in Section 1 usually covers vandalism/malicious damage.

Policy Reference: Section 1 / General Exclusions

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-081

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I was car-jacked and needed counselling.

Answer: Section 18 pays up to £5,000 for trauma counselling following an aggravated attempted theft (car jacking).

Policy Reference: Section 18 - Car jacking

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-082

Category: Excesses

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I am 23 and had an accident. Why is my excess higher?

Answer: A 'Young/Inexperienced Driver' excess (e.g., £500) applies in addition to the standard excess for drivers under 25.

Policy Reference: Policy Schedule - Excess Schedule

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: excesses, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-083

Category: Policy Changes

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I was driving my friend's car and crashed into a hedge.

Answer: If 'Driving Another Vehicle' is on your schedule, you may be covered for accidental damage to that car (up to £75,000).

Policy Reference: Section 24 - Driving another vehicle

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: policy changes, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-084

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My car was stolen and the police found it burnt out 20 miles away.

Answer: This is covered under Section 1 (Fire and Theft). We will either repair it or pay the market value if it's a total loss.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Loss or damage

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-085

Category: Theft Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I lost my keys and I'm worried the thief knows where I live.

Answer: Section 16 covers lock replacement if it's established the identity/address of the car is known to the person who found/stole the keys.

Policy Reference: Section 16 - Replacement locks

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: theft claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-086

Category: Vehicle Damage Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I hit a pothole and my tyre burst.

Answer: Damage to tyres by braking, punctures, cuts or bursts is excluded unless it's part of a larger accident.

Policy Reference: Section 1 - Exclusions to Section 1

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: vehicle damage claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-087

Category: Approved Repairers

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: My car was damaged while being serviced at a garage.

Answer: Section 1 cover remains in force while your car is in the custody of the motor trade for maintenance or repair.

Policy Reference: General Exclusions - 1(i)

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: approved repairers, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-088

Category: Foreign Travel Claims

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I am on holiday in Spain and my tent was stolen from the campsite.

Answer: Section 23 - Additional services covers accidental damage to or loss of a tent while camping abroad.

Policy Reference: Section 23 - Accidental damage to or loss of tent

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: foreign travel claims, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-089

Category: Endorsements

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I am a new immigrant and just got my UK policy. Do I have full cover?

Answer: Yes, but check for 'New Immigrant' endorsements which might have specific requirements (like P08).

Policy Reference: Endorsement Letter P08

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: endorsements, scenario, claims

FAQ ID: FAQ-090

Category: Claim Rejection Scenarios

Difficulty: Scenario

Question: I use my car to deliver pizzas. Is this covered?

Answer: No, use for 'hiring, racing, competitions... or use in connection with the motor trade' is excluded unless specifically agreed.

Policy Reference: General Exclusions / Certificate of Insurance

Source: Policy Wording / Schedule

Keywords: claim rejection scenarios, scenario, claims
